[1] The last part of this amount has been somehow erased; it is probably '08'
 [2] There is no mark to indicate that this should be extended to 'williamson'
 [3] This and the following four amounts are partly or wholly illegible due to part of the page being torn away. The amounts are probably all '00 01 08'
 [4] There is a fold in the page here, making this and the amount above only partly legible.
