

BRO 2908

Draft court roll, Manor of Bamburgh Castle, Northumberland, 25 October 1836.

1864
Came the said John Johnson ~~and humbly~~ out of Court, to wit at Alnwick in the County of Northth before W<sup>m</sup> Dickson the younger Esq<sup>r</sup> Steward of the s<sup>d</sup> Manor and humbly prayed of the Lords
to be admitted tenant of all the afores<sup>d</sup> premises, to which said John Johnson the Lords by William Dickson the younger Esq<sup>r</sup> Steward of the s<sup>d</sup> Manor did the & then grant seizin of all & singular the s<sup>d</sup> premises
To hold the same to the s<sup>d</sup> John Johnson his h<sup>rs</sup> sequele in right & assizes for ever of the Lords of the s<sup>d</sup> Manor according to the custom of the s<sup>d</sup> Manor under the Rents & services due & payable for the same And the s<sup>d</sup> John Johnson having p<sup>d</sup> his fine was admitted tenant accordingly
but his fealty was respited
Fine £2..9..4 10

1864
Came the said John Johnson
~~and humbly~~ out of Court to
wit at Alnwick in the County on North[umberlan]d before W[illia]m Dickson Steward the Younger Esq[ui]re Steward of the s[ai]d Manor
and humbly prayed of the Lords
to be admitted tenant of all the afores[ai]d premises, to which
said John Johnson the Lords by William Dickson the younger Esq[ui]re Steward of the s[ai]d Manor did the[re] & then grant seizin of all & singular the s[ai]d premises
To hold the same as the s[ai]d John Johnson his h[ei]r[s] sequele in right & assizes for ever of The Lords of the s[ai]d Manor according to the custom of the s[ai]d Manor under the Rents & services
due & payable for the same And the s[ai]d John Johnson having p[ai]d his fine
was admitted tenant accordingly
but his fealty was respited
Fine £ 2 * 9 * 4 10

Made possible with

Heritage
Fund

NORTHUMBERLAND
archives