

NRO 672/A/3/53 p.4

Borough Book, Manor of Hexham, 1735.

We present and Order, That noe butcher shall for the time to come scatter any blood or throw the Interils of sheep or other beafts, in the market place or sharp there knives or bills on the pant sistren upon pain of ~~ix~~ Thirteen Shillings and fourpence Each one offending therein

Wee present and Order, That noe butcher shall for the time to come scatter aney blood or throw the Interils of sheep or other beafts, in the Market place or sharp there knives or bills on the pant sistren upon pain of ~~six~~ Thirteen Shillings and fourpence Each one offinding therein

We present and order, That John Guthrick and John Liddell doe repaire the Chenell before their houses to carry the watter away it being a newesince to the nighbour hood, at or before the first day of August upon paine of 13:shill[ings] & 4<sup>d</sup> they offinding therein.

We present and order, That John Guthrick and John Liddell doe repaire the Chenell before their houses to carry the watter away it being a newesince to the nighbour hood, at or before the first day of august upon paine of 13:shill[ings] & 4<sup>d</sup> they offinding therein.

We present ~~and order~~ Thomas Bell of yuridge for peeling Oakebark <sup>from</sup> off trees at the Swallow chip and Dipton burne and therefore aMarse him thirty nine shillings & 11<sup>d</sup>: for disposing of the Same. Afferd. to 0:3:4

Wee present ~~and Order~~ Thomas Bell of yaridge for peeling Oakebark /from\ off trees at the Swallow chip and Dipton burne /belonging to the Town of Hexham where he hath no rights\ and therefore aMarse him thirty nine shillings & 11<sup>d</sup>: for disposing of the Same. Afferd to 0<sup>s</sup>: 3<sup>s</sup>: 4<sup>d</sup>

We present John Oxley of houtley for nott keeping up his hedges there and bounding of the Common whereby his cattle trespasss on the said Common and therefore aMarse him thirty nine shillings & 11<sup>d</sup>: without offering

Wee present John Oxley of houtley for nott keeping up his hedges there and bounding /on Hexham \ of the Common whereby his Cattle trespasss on the said Common and therefore aMarse him thirty nine Shillings & 11<sup>d</sup>: without offering

Wee Order & continue Rich: Bell hird of ye West Common for this yare

Wee Order & continue Rich[ar]d Bell hird of ye West Common for this yare