

NRO 672/A/3/53 p.6

Borough Book, Manor of Hexham, 1735.

Common Keepers for the year 1735

Mathew Bell Yarrish

John Potts Causey Hill

Rob[er]t Jefferson Rich[ard]: Leadbitter

We present and order that the Common Keepers shall have the parkesh¹ for all the goods trespassing thereon

they driving them to the Common fold

We present and order that Mr Jon² Aynsley

Mr Graham Tho[m]as Stubbuck and Tho[m]as Lee cut and whic[h] lay their Hedges Joyning to the high way leading to the long lands at or before the 25 day of March next upon pain of 6 s = 8 [d] each offending therein

We present Thomas Adamson of Spittle sheel

for cutting of wood growing on our Common having no right to the same therefore amerce him 39 s = 11 d without appearing

1:19.11

We present James Eward and Henry Newton and

and W[illiam] Carr for laying Dirt on the Causway

Leading to the fouldridge whee by the Said

James Eward

Causeway is very much broke and abused and 0: 6: 8

therefor immerce them therten and fourpence

Henry Newton

Each John Coatsworth Robert fairlamb

0: 6: 8

W[illiam] Carr

0: 3: 4

Jos³: Leadbitter

W Telle

Edward Willson

Thomas Fenwick

Edward Willson

W[illiam] Pool

Geo[orge]: Kell

Hen[ry] Dickinsen

Rich[ard] Gibson

Chrisopher Bell

John Tate

Cuthbert. Elliot.

John Cooke -

John Cirkpatrick⁴

¹ Parkesh - The act of enclosing stray cattle or sheep; the fine payable to obtain their release. Reference from Dictionaries of the Scots Language.

² Jon, possibly an abbreviation of John or Jonathan.

³ Jos: likely an abbreviation of Joseph or Josiah

Made possible with

Heritage Fund

